

Policy on Posting Chapter Notices on the Web - issued December 26, 2009

Chapter Notices are not to be published on websites. No information concerning applicants, candidates or balloting should appear on a website. No private information, which should not be in the public domain, should appear on a website.

Information, such as Chapter activities open to the public, and limited Chapter information soliciting for membership, including the Grand Chapter website URL may be posted on a Chapter's website.
